Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only if grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   Strengths: willing to answer questions
   - fair grading
   - nice

   Weaknesses: doesn't write the proofs clearly on the board... he explains most of it but doesn't write it so when I look back at my notes, nothing makes sense.
   - needs to give a review guide for exams of topics and/or questions to focus on

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   - difficult course but went at a good pace.
   - book was terrible
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Grigoryan  Course #: Math 117  Quarter: SP 11

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form
before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

The class was pretty straight forward.

I don't know if this is a comment on

The course it's self or more on a general comment on the cohesion of the

We didn't cover any new material over the course until the last 3 weeks of

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

Grigoryan did a fine job teaching and was open to discussion with the class. I just wish
Mathematics Department -- University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: [NAME] Course #: 117 Quarter: SP 11

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading.) Continue on back if necessary.

He was always available during office hours. Sometimes I couldn't exactly explain my question right and I would feel awkward asking for help. But I think he was really understanding and helpful.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

The text was good although there should have been more examples. I think it was really helpful to look at before doing the homework.
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Engoryan  Course #: Math 17  Quarter: Spring 2011

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor’s teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor’s teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Really nice guy. Explains things very well and really wants his students to understand the material. Lectures are always clear and he is always willing to answer any questions. I have taken several classes with him and would definitely recommend him to a friend. Great teacher!!

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   The course is not too difficult. The first half is basically a review of math’s but gets a little more difficult after the midterm. It is still fine as long as you pay attention and do the homework.
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Viktor Grigorov Course #: 117 Quarter: Spring 2011

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, board work, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   Very good. Willing to answer questions and fair on grading.
   Comes to class organized and does not waste time.
   Pictorial diagrams of the concepts are very helpful in visualizing and intuitively understanding them — please do a LOT more of these.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Extremely difficult.
   Good room.
Instructor: Grigoryan  Course #: 117  Quarter: Spring 2011

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   He is patient and thorough.
   I would gladly take a class with him again.
   I don't see any weaknesses.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   I feel UNPREPARED for 118. We spent too much time on Review and I feel short-changed that this class is required for 118. We barely covered Continuity! 118 will have us seeing much more in its first quarter.
Instructor: Grigoryan
Course #: Math 117
Quarter: Spring '11

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   He is very clear & organized. He knows the material very well. I feel that the pace was too slow during the first half of the quarter & too quick for the second half. I feel like we should have spent more time on the later material. Overall, it was challenging but pleasant experience.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   I really like this book although the class was hard, the material seemed very useful & stimulating.
Instructor: Viktor Grigoryan  Course #: Math 107  Quarter: Spring

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor’s teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor’s teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

The professor’s strength were his organization of his lectures. He was always available and explained very well. The only weakness I saw was his ability to stimulate interest in the subject. I hope believe there should be more examples.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

This course was difficult. It was not too difficult due to the clarity of the instructor.
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Grigoryan Course #: 117 Quarter: Spring

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading.) Continue on back if necessary.

   The instructor is very willing to help and holds extra office hours because it's a difficult class. He's knowledgeable, fair, and homeworks are reasonable too.
   His tests are good and his lectures are quite organized. Good teacher, would take again. He seems mean, but he's actually really nice if you see him at office hrs.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   The class is hard but the professor tries to explain better than the book.
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor:
Course #: Math 117 Quarter: Spring 2021

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   Strengths: preparation, organization, office hours

   Weaknesses: sound, handwriting

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   This course is very hard. You should work harder harder harder!!!
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Grigoryan  Course #: MATH117  Quarter: Spring

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor’s teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor’s teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   I think this class was interesting and taught well. The last few sections seemed a bit too rushed, but mostly the pace was quite reasonable. I also liked the book.

   Thank you!

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.
Instructor: Viktor Grigoryan  Course #: 117  Quarter: Spring 2011

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   This is my 3rd quarter with Grigoryan and he's clear, effective, and very aware of the students' comprehension of the material. I would say that Grigoryan, listened to students a bit too much and should have probably pushed more material. Overall, a great job.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   This class needs more analysis & less math & review. I was expecting to see a lot more material.
Mathematics Department -- University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Grigoryan Course #: 117 Quarter:

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

Excellent teacher, explains proofs well and always asks to make sure that students understand the proof. My two complaints, however, are that sometimes writing on the board is a little sloppy and that we spent too much time reviewing math 1 material.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.
Instructor: [Signature] Course #: [17] Quarter: [Spring]

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form
before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures,
boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

Excellent teaching. Fair tests. Very well done job for everything in the class. Review sessions very helpful and greatly appreciated. Thank you for a great course.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

Difficult course. Good textbook. Larger classroom for all the course.
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: [Signature] Course #: 117 Quarter: Spring

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   I would have preferred not to have a take-home exam for the final. On the midterm it made sense because of the time restraint, but for the final with 3 hours I think we could have used the test only in class. Otherwise I thought the class was well taught and easy to follow.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Would have been nice to get the book earlier.
Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

Very good teaching qualities. And very thoughtful. It's like the brain publish proofs of the book and so able to answer all the questions the students have.

Friendly and willing to help during office hours. One of the best math professors I have so far.

Yet I'm glad our math department hired him.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

Maybe a slightly bigger room.
Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   Always prepared w/organized lectures. Goes over major points and Theorems, could use a little further explanation on a lot of the things, but other than that everything was good.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Content similar to Math 8, half review and half new material.
Instructor: Grigoryan Course #: 117 Quarter: Spring 2011

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   He is a great teacher and is very good at explaining difficult subjects by giving examples. However, when he writes proofs on the board, it is easy to get lost because he leaves out the parts that he assumes are obvious.

   He is very available for help outside of the classroom.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Great textbook.
Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor’s teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

The teacher was great in wanting to help and offering extra office hours. But the class was hectic. He taught a little too fast. Speaking to quickly so the students were unable to process. By the time they were done copying the notes she was onto the next topic. Also not having the answers available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard. The word discription available was hard.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

HARD - CONCEPTUALLY HARD TO UNDERSTAND

TEXTBOOK NOT USEFUL HELPFUL - EASY

TO READ HARD TO UNDERSTAND
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Viktor Grigoryan  Course #: 117  Quarter: Spring 2011

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor’s teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor’s teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   Dear sir. Even though the work load is a bit too heavy and the contents are so challenging. His review session helps a lot.
   Explain things clearly.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Hard, but acceptable. Sometimes boring, but very useful in general.
Instructor: CHER HAN
Course #: 117
Quarter: Spring

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   Strengths: Approachable, kind, challenging but compassionate, neat, disciplined, clean always prepared, plentiful office hours ready & willing to help

   love exams: take time IN class

   Weaknesses: Could exam more pictures,

   we like them a lot. Break and make intro

   Laymen terms — usually you’re very experienced with math jargon.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Fairly difficult but good transition from math a into higher level stuff

   Advice to students: be ready to devote a lot of time, patience and effort.

   Rewarding.
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Viksar Ongkayrawat  Course #: 117  Quarter: Spring

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   Was good

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   I thought the problem sets were too long.
   I would say either shorten them a bit and just leave some of the more difficult problems or split it up and have homework due twice a week. Also, there was too much repetition of much

Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Grigoryan  Course #: Math 117  Quarter: Spring 2011

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   Clarity is nice with verbal explanations.

   Board work could be more linear in progression, and less all over the board. It's much easier to learn with consequent steps written fully out.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Pretty difficult, I put in a lot of work for mediocre grades.
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Grigorian Course #: 117 Quarter: S.11

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   Very prepared, clear, and able to explain difficult points.

   Could maybe develop more of his own examples to compliment those in the book.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Book was great
   Everything else fine.
Mathematics Department -- University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Grigoryan  Course #: 117  Quarter: SM

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   The pace of the course overall was somewhat slow, could have covered more material. Sticks on the book too much could do more explaining instead.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Book was fine. Crowed classroom

   & that impaired visibility of the white board

   Homework took a bit too much time

   - could simply have fewer problems
Instructor: Grigoryan  Course #: IVT  Quarter: Spring 2011

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   He comes to class very well prepared. He can answer questions to the best of his abilities without hesitation and can describe the same fact in numerous different ways.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   The textbook was a very good textbook. The class difficulty was borderline medium - hard difficulty because of the material due for the test.
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Grigoryan  Course #: Sr. 11  Quarter: M-H, 117

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCT Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor’s teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   Grigoryan is a good teacher.
   A little monotonous though, makes the class slightly boring. I tend to stay awake in. Provides clear logical explanations and makes sure his students have a solid basic understanding of material. Provides a good amount of examples. Always willing to meet outside of class, clearly enjoys teaching the subject.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Grigoryan  Course #: Math 117  Quarter: Spring 2011

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor’s teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor’s teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   The instructor was very articulate and presented lectures with great clarity.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   I feel the course may have covered too many topics for the length of the quarter.
Instructor: [Signature] Course #: 117 Quarter: Spring

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading.) Continue on back if necessary.

He was always very prepared and clear. Not too excited sounding, explained well, answered all questions. Exams fair, hard but grading fair.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

Textbook was really good but content was miserable. Room was cramped and always hot, ear chalk boards dirty.
Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   Great teacher, posed everything clearly and consistently. Obviously a master of the course, no hesitation when answering any questions. Willing to patiently go back and review important concepts.
   Weekly homework was great, very fair and helped keep on track.
   I really like Viktor as a teacher.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Textbook is great. I recommend taking this course with Viktor.
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor:
Course #:
Quarter: Spring 2011

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

He explains very well, but he needs to go in more details.

Overall, he was a great teacher.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

This course is way too hard.

There should be a section for this course.
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: VIKTOR GYORFY Course #: 117 Quarter: S 11

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   solid prof. awesome

   our 17A course was perfect.

   but in my opinion

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   put in my opinion rated analysis.

   hard stuff.
Mathematics Department - University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: ____________________  Course #: __________  Quarter: __________

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   [Student's comments]

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   [Student's comments]
Instructor: Grigoryan  Course #: Math 117  Quarter: Spring 11

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

- lectures were organized
- very knowledgeable about material
- available to help often but his proofs are sometimes unclear.
- very fair exams

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

- a lot of review of math 0
Instructor: Grigoryan  Course #: 117  Quarter: Spring 2011

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   He is always very clear, concise, and organized. He was always willing to help on homework questions or any other questions. Exam grading was a little harsh but his exam method is great. Homework could be a little overwhelming but probably necessary.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Textbook is one of the better math texts out there.

   Difficult class because it is not very interesting.
Mathematics Department – University of California, Santa Barbara

Instructor: Viktor
Course #: Quarter: Spring

Instructions: We are interested in your opinion of your instructor's teaching. This information will be used by the faculty and campus administration in evaluating your instructor. These surveys must be filled out and collected in class and returned directly to the department office by a student. The data from these surveys will be available to the instructor only after grades have been submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Please do not write your name on this form. Please write in pen.

Please respond to questions A and B on the ESCI Faculty/Course Response Form before continuing on with this questionnaire.

1. Please comment on the instructor's teaching strengths and weaknesses. (For example, you may wish to comment on preparation and organization of lectures, boardwork, clarity of presentation, ability to stimulate interest in the subject, ability to explain difficult points, willingness to answer questions, attitude toward students, availability and helpfulness of office hours, homework, fairness of exams and grading). Continue on back if necessary.

   Strengths
   - Very clear, good explanations
   - Readable boardwork
   - Helpful
   - Funny

   Weakness
   - Could explain more.

2. Please comment on the course (for example: Content, level of difficulty, textbook, physical conditions of the room and chalk or white boards, suggestions for improvement, advice to students who might take this class, etc.) Continue on back if necessary.

   Textbook was good.